

Bouchra Rahmouni

Director of Research, Partnerships and Events at Policy Center for the New South

Bouchra Rahmouni is Director of Research, Partnerships and Events at Policy Center for the New South. Professor Rahmouni is an international affiliated Professor at New York University (Risk of Finance Engineering department) – USA; she is also visiting professor at Holy Spirit University – Lebanon. Bouchra is a distinguished Professor of Geopolitics at Grenoble School of Management – France. She is also visiting professor at International trade and Law Institute of Pusan National University – South Korea.

Professor Rahmouni contributed in a book titled "Afrique: Terre des nouvelles convoitises" edited by Ellipse in September 2011. She also took part in a book on women entrepreneurship: "Femme et entrepreneur: c'est possible!" which is published by Pearson in November 2012, another book titled: "Géopolitique de la Méditerranée" published in April 2013 by Presses Universitaires de France (PUF), "Géopolitique de la condition féminine" in Major Collection of Presses Universitaire de France, December 2013, and "Le basculement économique et géopolitique du monde, le poids et la diversité des pays émergents" published by l'Harmattan-France, November 2013. The book "Géopolitique de la Méditerranée" was translated to Japanese, in 2016, by Editions Hakusui-Sha, Tokyo. She manages a book which is devoted to geopolitical, economical, and social Moroccan evolution: "Le Maroc stratégique: Ruptures et permanence d'un Royaume en mouvement", November 2013, DESCARTES Editions – France. Professor RAHMOUNI manages another book which is devoted to a geopolitical and geo-economic analysis of Africa and titled "Afrique; Nouvelle frontière de la croissance, Comprendre, Investir et Entreprendre" edited by Tchrip and Ophrys France, September 2015. She also contributed to the Atlantic Currents, Annual Report on Wider Atlantic perspectives and Patterns, by the German Marshal Fund and the Policy Center for the New South, with a chapter titled; "Geo Finance in South Atlantic: The role of banks and Sovereign Funds in some emerging economies", December 2016.

Bouchra gave lectures in world forums and special topics within prestigious institutions in France, Hong Kong, United States, South Korea, Lebanon and Switzerland.