

Nadia El Mahjoubi

Advisor Royal Cabinet

Nadia El Mahjoubi is a diplomat and First Secretary of Foreign Affairs, seconded to The Royal Cabinet as collaborator of the Counsellor of His Majesty The King Mohammed VI, Mr. Andre Azoulay.

Prior to her current occupation Nadia El Mahjoubi was advisor of the 'chargé de mission' Minister Youssef Amrani, at The Royal Cabinet (2014-2018). She was advisor in charge of Africa at the office of the Secretary General of the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation of Morocco (2012-2014) and desk officer at the African Department for political affairs in charge of West and Central Africa (2010-2012).

She has a degree in « Public Policies Management» from the University of Mohammed V in Rabat and from the Moroccan Academy of Diplomatic Studies.