

Akinari Horii

Special Advisor and a member of the Board of Directors of the Canon Institute for Global Studies

Akinari Horii is Special Advisor and a member of the Board of Directors of the Canon Institute for Global Studies, a research think tank in Tokyo, Japan. He also sits on the Audit & Supervisory Board of Tokio Marine Holdings. In addition, Akinari advises a few internationally active business firms.

He is a member of several non-profit entities, e.g., Keizai Doyukai (Japan Association of Corporate Executives); Investment Committee at Kindai University; the Trilateral Commission; the United States-Japan Foundation's Board of Trustees, where he is Vice Chairman; and the Board of Councilors of the Institute for International Monetary Affairs.

Akinari Horii was a central banker until he stepped down as Assistant Governor of the Bank of Japan in June 2010. During the four years' term of office, Mr. Horii was responsible for the Bank's all international activities and represented the Bank at G7 Deputies, G20 Deputies, FSB, and other key committees of international organizations. In Asia, he was Chairman of EMEAP Working Group on Financial Markets as well as BIS/EMEAP Forex Forum.

Before the governmental appointment to assistant governorship, Mr. Horii had worked at the Bank for three decades. Outside the Bank of Japan, he also worked at the BIS in Basel, Switzerland and Japan's Ministry of Finance.

Mr. Horii received his MBA with distinction, and as a Beta Gamma Sigma, from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and his BA in Economics from the University of Tokyo.
