

Nabil Fahmy

Dean Emeritus at the American University in Cairo

Nabil Fahmy is Dean Emeritus at The American University in Cairo, where in 2009 he founded the School of Global Affairs and Public Policy and served as Dean from 2009-2013 & 2014-2022

He is Chairman of Lynx Strategic Advisors since 2019.

Fahmy was an Egyptian career diplomat (1976-2011) and served Foreign Minister (July 2013 - June 2014) during extremely challenging times formulating strategies to reorient its Foreign Policy, ensuring that Egypt had numerous options both regionally and globally.

During his distinguished diplomatic career Fahmy served as Ambassador to the United States (1999-2008) and Japan (1997-1999) as well as in numerous government and international positions. His work focused on international and regional security, disarmament and non-proliferation, conflict resolution, and Arab-Israeli diplomacy. Fahmy was also the Chairman of the United Nations Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters and the Vice Chairman of the United Nations General Assembly's first committee dealing with disarmament and international security. He was a member of the Egyptian Delegation to the 1991 Madrid Peace Conference; the Review Conferences of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons; the Committee on Principles in the United Nations Conference on Promoting International Cooperation in the Peaceful Uses of Nuclear Energy and many other multilateral events

He was a member of the Supreme Advisory Council of the Beijing Forum.

In 2009 Fahmy was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters- from the Monterey Institute of International Studies.

He was bestowed with the Cordon of the Order of the Rising Sun by Japanese Emperor Naruhito.

Nabil Fahmy has published his newest book "EGYPT'S DIPLOMACY IN WAR, PEACE, AND TRANSITION" in February 2020, as well as an updated and longer Arabic version of the book in 2022.

He publishes Arabic and English articles, weekly and monthly, on Global and International Affairs, Middle East Politics, and Governance.
