

Aminata Touré

Elected representative of the National Assembly of Senegal and former Prime Minister of Senegal

Training

- PhD in International Business Administration and Finances from the International School of Management ISM in New York and Paris
- MBA from University of Dijon Business School, France
- Master Degree in Economics from Aix Marseille II University, France

Professional experience

July 2022: Elected representative of the National Assembly of Senegal

May 2019-October 2020: Head of Conseil Economique, Social et Environnemental of Senegal

February 2015-May 2019: Special Envoy of President Macky Sall for internal and external Affairs

August 2017: Head of the Carter Center Presidential Election First Round Observation Mission in Kenya with American Secretary of State John Kerry, Head of the Observation Mission of the Presidential Election in Liberia for EISA and the Carter Center

October 2015: Head of the African Union Observation Mission for Ivory Coast Elections

December 2014: Head of the African Union Observation Mission for Mauritius General Elections

1st September 2013 to 13 July 2014: Prime Minister of Senegal

5th April 2012 to 30th August 2013: Minister of Justice, Attorney General

August 2009 - April 2012: Director of the Gender and Human Rights World Department of the United Nations Population Funds in New York

October 2003 - August 2009: Senior Adviser at UNFPA Headquarter in New York

January 2002 - October 2013: West Africa Program Manager on Gender and HIV and Aids

February 1998 - December 2001: UNFPA Senior adviser in Côte d'Ivoire

January 1996 - December 1997: UNFPA Senior adviser in Burkina Faso

February 1992 - November 1995: Adviser and Program Director of ASBEF, Senegal branch of the International Planned Parenthood Federation

December 1988 - November 1991: Senior staff and head of Incomes Department and Marketing of SOTRAC, National Public Transportation Company of 2500 employees

Languages

Equally fluent in French, English and Wolof.

Publication

Directed more than 30 UNFPA worldwide publications.